Consecration of the Bishop of Oregon

[illegible]

As previously announced in these columns the consecration of the Rev Benjamin Wistar Morris, Rector of St Luke's Church Germantown as Missionary Bishop of Oregon took place at St Luke's ... Church Thirteenth street near Spruce yesterday morning. The interesting services attracted a very large audience.

At 11 o'clock the procession of clergy entered the church passing up the aisle in the following order: Bishops Alfred Lee, Odenheimer, Vail, Kerfoot, Randall, and Clarkson; the Bishop elect attended by Rev Dr Hare and Rev Mr Brook; the officiating clergymen in surplice; other clergymen.

There were between eighty and ninety bishops and clergymen in the procession, about fifty being robed.

As the clergy took the places assigned them in the chancel, the ... choir under Mr W. H. W. Darley sang an appropriate anthem, "Seek ye the Lord."

The opening sentences, exhortation, confession and absolution were read by the Rev Mr Rodney. The first lesson, Isaiah, 61st chapter, was read by the Rev Dr Littlejohn, of Brooklyn, and the second lesson, Acts 20th chapter, by the Rev Dr Haight of New York. The creed was read by the Rev Mr Buchanan, and the prayers by the Rev Dr Morton.

The ante communion service was conducted by the several bishops present, after which an eloquent sermon was preached by the Right Rev Bishop Clarkson of Nebraska. It was an earnest appeal for the increase of missionary bishops at the West, strongly advocating the necessity and policy of creating seven more missionary dioceses in order that each of the Territories might be under separate episcopal jurisdiction. Bishop Clarkson dwelt with great force upon the growing needs of the West and extended a cordial greeting to the new bishop who was about to enter upon the great field lying upon the Pacific Coast. We regret that the lateness of the hour forbids our giving a full abstract of this earnest and most sensible discourse.

At the conclusion of the sermon the bishop elect was presented to Bishop Lee the presiding bishop, by Bishops Kerfoot and Clarkson saying "Reverend Father in God we present unto you this godly and well learned man to be ordained and consecrated bishop."

The testimonials from the House of Bishops were then read by Rev Dr Potter of Grace Church, N. Y., and those of the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies by the Rev Dr Hodges.

The service of consecrating was concluded by the presiding bishop delivering the Bible to the newly consecrated bishop with the quaint old exhortation of the Episcopal Church:

"Give heed unto reading, exhortation and doctrine; think upon the things contained in this book; be diligent in them, that the increase coming thereby may be manifest unto all men; for by so doing thou shalt both save thyself and them that hear thee. Be to the flock of Christ a shepherd, not a wolf; feed them, devour them not; hold up the weak, heal the sick, bind up the broken, bring again the outcast, seek the lost. Be so merciful that you be not too remiss; so minister discipline that you forget not mercy; that when the Chief Shepherd shall appear you may receive the never fading crown of glory through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

The holy communion was then administered by the Presiding Bishop, assisted in the distribution of the elements by the Rev Messrs Atkins, Diehl, Murphy, Perry, Hare, Childs, Montgomery, Drs Drum, Miller, Potter, Hodges, Millette, Van Kleck and Walker. The offertory was taken by the Rev Messrs Bonnell, True, Foggo, Harris, McKim, Littell, Coleman and Patterson. A large portion of the congregation participated in this part of the service and were then dismissed with the Episcopal benediction.

Treasury Notes and National Bank Notes

The Chicago Tribune thus states the difference between a Treasury note and a National Bank note, and the reason why it is not expedient to substitute the former for the latter:

A note is a written or printed paper acknowledging a debt and promising payment. A Treasury note is a promise to pay the bearer in gold as many dollars as are called for on its face. A bank note is a promise to pay the bearer in "lawful money," i. e. greenbacks or gold.

The banks fulfill their promise to redeem, but the Government refuses to perform its promise; therefore the bank notes are at par with lawful money, but the Treasury notes are at thirty per cent discount of that in which they are redeemable.

The Government refuses to pay coin according to promise, also refuses to name the day when it will pay coin, also, refuses to exchange bonds for its dishonored notes, or to pay interest on them. How is it possible under such circumstances for greenbacks to pass current for what they purport to be worth? Suppose the banks were to refuse to redeem their notes in lawful money on demand and decline to name a day when they would redeem them, and all refuse to pay interest on them or exchange them for bonds, how much would such bank notes be worth? They would be at as great a discount below lawful money as the greenbacks are below gold.

A Treasury note or a bank note bearing no interest must be redeemed on demand in order to pass current for their face value. If a note is not payable on demand, it must bear interest and be payable on some future day named. But a Treasury note lacks all these essentials of solvency and currency, and hence the shameless discount at which it passes.

Now for the Government to add three hundred millions to this mass of non interest bearing, protested paper would be to essentially weaken public confidence in the prospect of early redemption, to postpone and prolong the period when the Government may be in condition to make good its promise of payment. If the Government is unable to redeem even 350 millions of its outstanding notes, how is it going to redeem them if 400 millions were added to their amount? It would simply be ... of the question to think of paying coin if there were 700 million in circulation. Consequently a depreciation would ensue equal to the increase of the volume of irredeemable non interest notes, and greenbacks thereafter would vibrate between 200 and 250, accordingly as they were pushed up or squeezed down by the bull and bear gold gamblers.

SUFFICIENT REAL ESTATE.—A gentleman who is rather given to story telling relates the following: "When I was a young man I spent several years at the South, residing for a while at Port Hudson on the Mississippi river. A great deal of litigation was going on there at that time, and it was not always an easy matter to obtain a jury. One day I was summoned to act in this capacity, and repaired to court to get excused. On my name being called I informed his honor the judge that I was not a freeholder, and therefore not qualified to serve.

'Where do you reside?' inquired the judge.

'I am stopping for the time being at Port Hudson.'

'You board at a hotel, I presume?'

'I take meals there, but I have rooms in another part of town where I lodge.'

'Do you keep bachelor's hall?'

'Yes, sir.'

'How long have you lived in that manner?'

'About six months.'

'I think you are qualified,' gravely remarked the judge, 'for I have never known a man to keep bachelor's hall that length of time you name who had not dirt enough in his room to make him a freeholder. The court cannot excuse you.'"

A rebel paper in Nashville calls General Geo H Thomas a "pompous old swell" and "a wooden headed automaton in the hands of his wire-pullers," and pronounces his report on the Tennessee Ku Klux to be a "tissue of gross falsehoods from beginning to end." It therefore does not propose to ... itself by attempting to refute what is so palpably malicious and false.

The Ninth Massachusetts district disputes with the Second Illinois district the honor of being the banner district of the Union. Farnsworth's plurality in the former was 11,418, Washburne's in the latter 10,161.

It is understood to-day that it is the intention of General Stoneman to proceed at once to apply the fourteenth amendment in filling the offices of Clerks of Courts and Commonwealth Attorneys in Virginia. A list of persons who are eligible is being prepared by the civil authorities.

Nothing remains now of Fort Lafayette but a ruined mass of brick and mortar. There is no fire on the premises and soldiers are still on guard. Several unexploded shells remain among the ruins and may go off at any moment. The loss to the Government will be about $250,000.

The Secretary of the Interior in his annual report, says that the quantity of public lands undisposed of is 1,405,346,978 acres; amount disposed of during last year 666,474,250. The Secretary devotes a good portion of his report to the Pacific Railroad, and on the whole speaks of them in excellent terms.

Mr Griswold made a very handsome run for Governor of the State of New York, even allowing all the fraudulent votes cast for Hoffman. Griswold's vote was 408,099, or nearly 42,000 more than Governor Fenton received in 1866 when he polled the largest vote ever given to any Republican candidate for Governor.

Here is General Grant's hit at the New York illegal voting. During his recent visit North a six year old boy remarked as he shook hands with General Grant, "I am a Republican, and sorry I couldn't vote for you." The General replied, "Well, my brave little fellow, you had as good a right to vote as many who did."

Society is now discussing how long a widow must abstain from parties after the death of her husband.

"Marriage," said an unfortunate husband, "is the churchyard of love." "And you men," replied the wife, "are the grave-diggers."

"What is your notion of the true physician?" asked a medical professor of a student, to which the latter replied: "He is an unfortunate gentleman who is every day called upon to perform the miracle of reconciling health with intemperance."

Mr John G Saxe recently met on board a steamer a lively young lady to whom he made himself agreeable. Of course he made an impression upon the damsel, who said at parting: "Good by, Mr Saxe. I fear you'll be forgetting me." "Ah Miss," replied the many times defeated candidate for Governor of Vermont, "if I was not a married man already, you may be sure I'd be for getting you."

Once when Father Taylor, when preaching to his audience of seamen, found himself entangled suddenly in a thicket of accumulated clauses, he extricated himself by exclaiming: "I have lost track of the nominative to my verb, but my brethren one thing I know—I am bound for the Kingdom of Heaven!" That was oratory superior to rhetoric. It was getting the wine of eloquence by crushing the grapes of style.

Scene in Richmond.—Sable gentleman in the voice of Stentor: "Tatoes! Tatoes!" Coffee-colored dame: "Hush dat racket; you distracts de whole neighborhood." Sable gentleman: "You kin hear me, kin you?" Coffee-colored dame: "Hear you? I kin hear you a mile!" Sable gentleman: "Thank God for dat! I's hollerin' to be heard. Tatoes!" With which cry he touched up his lean horse and moved on.

A gentleman and his wife were playing at one of the tables in Baden in the midst of a crowd. "Hold," said the lady, "an idea!" "What is it?" "I am going to bet on the number of my own age." "All right," replied the husband without turning his head, being occupied in ogling a pretty waiter. His wife placed a louis on the number twenty five. "Thirty six," drawled the croupier in a nasal tone. "Thirty six! you have won," exclaimed the husband with delight. Madame reddened to her eye brows, watched the rake as it drew away the louis from number twenty five and quitted the room vowing never to lie again about her age.

A JUMPING MATCH.—A young man of our village (he relates the story himself) who fought but did not die at Antietam and Gettysburg, went into the provinces to fit with some small articles for sale. One night just as the sable curtains of the evening were being lowered upon him, he applied at a very respectable looking house for entertainment. He was very kindly received by a young lady, who happened to be the only one of the family at home, with whom he partook of the evening meal, and everything seemed to our hero to be going "merry as a marriage bell." It seems however that the young lady began to suspect that in entertaining a stranger she had not entertained an angel. But how to get rid of him was the trouble. At length she asked him if he could jump well, saying that she could jump further than any Yankee living. This was a stump which the hero of a dozen battle fields was not disposed to take, and so they arranged for a trial of leap frog. The young lady placing herself against the opposite wall at three jumps reached the door. Our Yankee now took his station for the trial. At two bounds he nearly reached the door, when Miss Blue-nose, with all the feminine fascination imaginable, said she would open the door for him so that he might have a chance to see how much he excelled her, and he took the third leap, which landed him outside. The young lady instantly closed and fastened the door, took what matters were out and valise of merchandise into the chamber, threw them out of the window to him, and told him there was a tavern about seven miles below where no doubt he could be entertained. He went on his way meditating on the mysteries of women.—Presque Isle ...

At Allegan, Mich., lately, the presiding elder, Rev. Thomas Lyons addressed the Congregational Sunday school. He said to the scholars: "You have had meetings and celebrations lately; now will you repeat some of the inscriptions you carried on your banners?" There was an instant chorus, "Grant and Colfax!" This brought down the house. "Now, you know, you have had Sunday school meetings; can you think of no mottoes you carried on that occasion?" Again, "Grant and Colfax!" This confused the elder, and he remarked: "No wonder your county gave 1,200 Republican majority."

State Agricultural College.

AN ACT to secure the location of the Lands donated by Congress to the State for an Agricultural College and to establish such College.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon: SECTION 1. That J. F. Miller, J. H. Mitchell and J. C. Avery are hereby constituted a Board of Commissioners with power to locate all the lands to which this State is entitled by act of Congress, for the purpose of establishing an Agricultural College, and as soon as such locations are made to report the same to the Secretary of State; 2. To take into consideration the further organization and perfecting of a plan for the permanent establishment of such College, in accordance with the requirements of the act of Congress making such donation, and report the same to the Governor by the first day of August 1870; 3. To fill all vacancies in the College by appointment, that may occur in any Senatorial district under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 2. That until other provisions are made Corvallis College is hereby designated and adopted as the Agricultural College, in which all students sent under the provisions of this act shall be instructed in all the arts, sciences, and other studies in accordance with the requirements of the Act of Congress making such donation.

SEC. 3. Each State Senator is hereby authorized and empowered to select one student not less than sixteen years of age who shall be received by the Faculty of said College and instructed in the manner provided in this Act for the space of two years, unless such student shall be discharged for misconduct. Provided however, that this Act shall not be binding until the Trustees of said College shall adopt a resolution and file a certified copy thereof with the Secretary of State assenting to and agreeing on their part to faithfully carry out the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 4. Upon the certificate of the President of Corvallis College that any student so appointed is in attendance at School, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State at the middle of each quarter to draw his warrant upon the State Treasurer in favor of the Treasurer of said College for the sum of $11.25 for each student so attending. And it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to pay such warrants out of any funds in his hands not otherwise appropriated, and a separate account of such funds shall be kept and designated "Agricultural Funds."

SEC. 5. All funds paid out in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing section, with interest thereon, at ten per cent per annum shall be refunded to the State Treasurer from the first interest that shall accrue from the proceeds of the sale of any lands located for said College.

SEC. 6. The Board of Commissioners hereby created shall make all the reports required by law, and shall each receive a salary of five dollars per day for the number of days actually employed, to be paid upon the sworn statement of such Commissioner.

Whereas, it appears that unless an Agricultural College is provided by law at this session of the Legislature the grant by Congress will be lost, therefore this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Bread and Babies

[From the Revolution.]

We are constantly asked, if women vote, who will take care of the bread and babies?

In view of the heavy bread, and badly cooked food we find on most tables, and the shocking mortality among infants, we contemplate with wonder and pity the blind faith of men in the maternal and culinary intelligence of "the weak minded" who have no aspirations beyond Hecker's flour, Mrs. Winslow's soothing syrup, and Wheeler & Wilson's sewing machine. Seeing that woman have devoted themselves through the ages to domestic economy and failed, as miserably as men have in the art of government, we have after mature thought come to the conclusion that just as women's enlightened interest in political questions will improve the state, so men's skill and ... are necessary to redeem the home from its present disorder, disease and death. If there are two things we thoroughly understand, they are babies and bread, and for our knowledge of both these divine arts we are indebted to philosophical, scientific gentlemen.

The only valuable work we ever saw on infancy was written by a man, Andrew Combe, of Scotland, a close observer, a sound thinker and a learned physiologist. We shall never forget how tempest tossed we were when we first found ourself the happy possessor of a male child without the slightest knowledge of what to do for his comfort and protection. An ignorant nurse fidgeted round the room day and night, sang melancholy ditties and rocked vehemently, while the child cried continually with a loud voice and we wept, prayed and philosophized by turns. Reasoning on general principles, we at last came to the conclusion that inasmuch as the child was large and vigorous there must be some mistake on the part of the nurse that he was not quiet and comfortable; we fortified ourself in that opinion by a faithful reading of what Mr Combe had to say on babies in general. The result of this consideration of his opinions was a prompt revolution in the whole nursery department, and a transfer of pain from the baby to the nurse, who stood humbled and chagrined as she saw her time honored system summarily set aside—the pains, paregoric, catnip and cradle driven out—while pure air, sunlight and common sense walked in. Oh! what sighs, what groans, what doubtful shakings of the head, what suppressed laughter and whisperings in the hall we heard during the first few days after the inauguration of that dynasty of health, happiness and rest to that new born soul.

When the three hours cry began that day which ancient dames assured us was a custom that had been faithfully kept by all the sons of Adam from time immemorial, we ordered the little sufferer to be promptly stripped to the skin and put in a warm bath; that brought instant relief, after which he was dressed in a few light garments hung on the shoulders, with no swaddling bands, no pressure on the lungs or bowels, and laid down to sleep. He was fed (according to Combe) every two hours by day and but once during the night. After that we had peace, though eternal vigilance on our part was its price. The custom of pinning babies up as tight as a drum is both cruel and absurd. We asked the antiquarian who tortured our first born in that way why she did it? "The bones of young babies are so soft and their flesh so tender," said she, "that they are in constant danger of dislocation unless tightly pinioned together." We soothed her fears by pointing to the fact that colts and calves, puppies and kittens all lived and flourished without bandages, and for the benefit of the race we said we would make the experiment on one of the human family.

If babies are regularly fed, bathed and comfortably dressed, and in a pure atmosphere, they will be quiet and healthy. The ignorance of women on these subjects is truly lamentable. We have seen children a year old that had never tasted water, when they should have it half a dozen times a day from the hour of their birth. We have found fathers who worked hard all day complain bitterly of being disturbed at night by crying children, hence the common use of Mrs Winslow's soothing syrup, which only tends to increase the irritable condition of the nervous system and permanently weaken the brain.

Young mothers no doubt imagine that this Mrs Winslow is some experienced humane old lady who loves little children, knows just how to soothe them to sleep, and pilot them through all the pitfalls of infancy, while in fact the abominable syrup is compounded by some ignorant man in whiskers, broadcloth and boots, who lives and fattens on his drugging, while babies are ... by the hundreds ... graves or made idiots ... for life.—W... dy S...

MONDAY MORNING DEC 28 1868

The National Treasury

In the President's message, as we have before [illegible] the [illegible] of the country is referred to in a very [illegible] manner [illegible] statements which he supplies [illegible] and which are necessary to enable the people to understand the condition of the finances are fully supplied in the reports of his [illegible] Secretaries [illegible] papers of the [illegible] December have the report of the Secretary of the Treasury in full and [illegible] seems to be more candid [illegible] than some others which have emanated from the same source. The President dwelt with great emphasis on the apparent increase of the debt during the year ending November 1st and intended to make this point tell against his political opponents. The Secretary's report furnishes the facts in relation to this matter. He shows that while there was an apparent increase of $3[illegible] 625 102 82 in the debt between the 1st day of November 1867 and the 1st day of November 1868, this increase is chargeable as follows: To the Pacific railroads the sum of $2[illegible] 102 000, which is merely an endorsement for the companies and not a debt to be paid by the Government; to bounties paid during the year to the national soldiers, $44,060,515, an expense which it will not be necessary to meet again, as the Secretary states that the bounties will all be paid by the 1st March; to $7 200 000 paid for Alaska, and at least $4 000,000 for interest which had accrued to the 1st November 1867. If, says the Secretary, these extraordinary advances and payments had not been made, the receipts would have exceeded the expenditures $43 787 412. This explanation puts a very different face on the matter from that given it by the President's partial pettifogging statement. The Secretary adds: "Considering the heavy reduction of internal taxes made at the last session of Congress and the large expenditures which have attended the military operations against the Indians, this statement of the debt cannot be regarded as an unsatisfactory one. The public debt, without oppressive taxation, can be rapidly diminished and easily extinguished in the time (twenty years) heretofore named by the Secretary." This sounds somewhat different from Mr Johnson's declaration that the nation can never get clear of debt except by repudiating a large part of its obligations.

During the late political campaign the Republicans used as an argument on the finances a statement which now comes in an official shape from the head of the Treasury. This argument was that at the close of the war there were very large portions of the debt which were unaudited, and which have since been audited and paid; that the statement of the audited debt at the close of the war, viz $2 757,689,571 43, were nothing like a full statement of the national indebtedness at that time; and that the difference between the sum expressed by the above figures and the sum of $2,527,129,552 82, which is given as the present amount of the debt—a difference of $230,660,018 61,—does not show anything near the amount by which the debt has been reduced since the close of the war.

On this subject the Secretary proceeds to say that in former reports he has not thought it necessary to show how much of the large revenue receipts had been expended in the payment of debts incurred during the war, and he would not undertake to do it now did not [illegible] misapprehension exist in the public mind in regard to the expenditures of the government since the cessation of hostilities prejudicial to both the law making and law-executing branches of the government." He then says that if the statement of the public debt at the close of the war had included all debts due at that time, and the large sums which have since been paid into the Treasury had really been expended in payment of interest and the current expenses of the Government during the period since the war closed, "there would have been a profligacy and a recklessness in the expenditures of the public moneys discreditable to the Government and disheartening to the tax-payers." But he adds: "Fortunately this is not the fact." He then says that the statement of the debt at the close of the war included only the adjusted debt, according to the books of the Treasury, and did not and could not include the large sums due to the soldiers of the great Union army, (numbering at that time little less than a million of men) for pay and for bounties, or on claims of various kinds which must of necessity have been unsettled. The aggregate of the claims which were unadjusted when the war closed but which have since been audited and paid foots up the enormous sum of $640 431 125 90, all of which the Secretary says was justly chargeable to the expenses of the war. Add to this the amount of $42 194,000 advanced to the Pacific roads and the $7,200,000 paid for Alaska, and we have the aggregate of $679,825,125 90, as the amount of the extraordinary expenditures of the Government exclusive of [illegible] April 1865. At that date the [illegible] was $2,366,955 077 34. Add the amount, $630,431,125 90, since paid in debts which were actually due at the close of the war and it appears that the war debt of the United States when the rebellion ceased, was $2,997,386 203 24. As the debt on the 1st November 1868 amounted to $2 527 129 552 82, the actual reduction since the war closed, as the Secretary states, has been $470 256,650 42, and but for the advances to the Pacific roads and the purchase of Alaska, it would have been $519, 650 650 42.

These facts and figures show that more than one sixth of the debt that was incurred in quelling the great rebellion has been paid in the space of three and a half years. They further show that as the interest each year grows less by the reduction of the principal the whole debt may be easily paid within the period of twenty years from the end of the rebellion. The official Treasury report does not justify Johnson's dishonorable propositions.

GEORGIA.—The question which has arisen as to the status of Georgia is a very simple one. There were some colored men in the Legislature. By this Legislature the Fourteenth Amendment was ratified and the fundamental conditions of reconstruction accepted. Afterwards these colored members were excluded from the Legislature on pretence that they could not legally be members of that body. Now if they were not legal members the Fourteenth Amendment was not legally ratified, the conditions of reconstruction were not legally accepted and the government of Georgia was not changed from a provisional government to a permanent one. In this view of the case Georgia has not been "reconstructed" at all and is still under the control of Congress. The State has not yet resumed its relations with the General Government. But if the colored members were entitled to their seats and were unlawfully excluded by men who are disqualified from holding office by the Fourteenth Amendment, Congress should see that these rebels are in turn excluded before the State shall be admitted to a share in the Government. In either event it is the duty of Congress to interpose.

BRICK POMEROY'S ADMIRERS.—[illegible] Brick Pomeroy has [illegible] admirers at Walla Walla [illegible] [illegible] the following from his Daily [illegible] of the 1st December. We [illegible] Newell's [illegible] [illegible] obscenity, bestiality and bed rock Democracy:

This morning while seated in the sanctum writing there came to us by the hands of [illegible] messenger forwarded by Wells Fargo & Co's Express from Walla Walla, Washington Territory, a package to us directed. On opening the same we found therein in a beautiful velvet case a massive solid gold medal of exquisite design and elegant workmanship. On one side is represented a Sir Knight with drawn sword mounted on a fine steed, with the following inscription:

To the Hon Brick' Pomeroy

The Hero of Democracy 1868

"On the reverse side is a beautiful engraved eagle surmounting a shield, two national flags and a sword, with this inscription:

"Presented by the Democrats of Walla Walla W T, 1868

"The medal is of pure virgin gold, two and a quarter inches across and three-sixteenths of an inch in thickness, and is one of the finest specimens of work we ever saw."

LIGHT.—A short paragraph which appeared in the OREGONIAN the other day gives the Albany Democrat an opportunity for a long leader. We remarked in substance that most of the Democratic editors who make so much noise about the burden of national taxation never pay a cent, and that the United States Collector has not the smallest acquaintance with them. The Democrat answers that "those who pay taxes to the United States Collector are not the only persons who pour money into the Federal treasury," and that "every person who drinks intoxicating liquors, snuffs, smokes or chews tobacco," etc., etc., is among those who are ground down by taxation. This tax on whisky does make it mighty hard on the Democratic consumer, we admit. This may be one of the chief causes of the impecuniosity of Democratic editors, and therefore the reason why they rail so long and loud on this subject. The Democrat has thrown much light on the matter.

WHAT'S THE MATTER?—The Herald has informed us that Andrew Johnson is the "money Moses" of the Democracy and that he represents the views of that party on the subject of national finance. That paper should now explain why its party friends in Congress do not stand by him. The other day the House passed a resolution condemning the propositions on finance in Johnson's message, by a vote of 154 to 6. Where were the followers of the "money Moses" when this vote was taken? There are 50 Democrats in the House, yet only six came to the support of Johnson. Is he too much of a repudiator for the Democrats of the East, or what is the matter? The Herald should try to clear up the subject.

THE ELECTORAL VOTE.—The following is a statement of the electoral vote for President and Vice President:

FOR GRANT AND COLFAX
Maine	7	Tennessee	10
New Hampshire	5	North Carolina	9
Vermont	5	South Carolina	6
Massachusetts	12	Florida	3
Rhode Island	4	Alabama	8
Connecticut	6	Arkansas	5
Pennsylvania	26
West Virginia	5	Total	214
Ohio	21	SEYMOUR AND BLAIR
Michigan	8	New York	33
Indiana	13	New Jersey	7
Illinois	16	Oregon	3
Wisconsin	8	Kentucky	11
Iowa	8	Georgia	9
Minnesota	4	Louisiana	7
Nebraska	3	Delaware	3
Kansas	3	Maryland	7
Missouri	11
Nevada	3	Total	80
California	5	Majority for Grant and Colfax	134

A COLORED MEMBER.—From Louisiana a colored man named Mainard has made his appearance at Washington. Louisiana is a strongly Democratic State, and has chosen to send a "nigger" to represent one of her Districts. Some of the Democratic journals are complaining bitterly because he is not admitted. It may be a little rough on the Democracy, but Congress will not admit him, as the act would be a recognition of the legality of the Louisiana elections. Mr Mainard, who is doubtless a better man than John Morrissey and more intellectual in appearance than Rev. Joseph Smith, can't come in.

STATE ITEMS

The Courier urges the authorities of Yamhill county to erect bridges across the Yamhill river at Lafayette and McMinnville. Good idea.

The Unionist says the total valuation of the real and personal property in Marion county, exclusive of the indebtedness of the tax payers, is $3 530 779. The number of polls returned by the Assessor for 1868, is 1 856.

The Albany Register says: The Trustees of Albany College will not consent to the resignation of so excellent a man and teacher as the Rev Mr Bushnell has proved himself to be, and therefore he will be retained as Principal of the institution until the expiration of the present term, at least.

—The authorities of Jacksonville have ordered everybody to be vaccinated, and there has been a lively business in the town in that line.

The Jacksonville Reveille says that up to the 19th inst there had been seven cases of small pox in that town.

Political Condition of New York

The Nation, an independent journal of New York, has the following remarks upon the Tammany Ring and their corrupt management:

The Tammany Ring have achieved the principal object for which they have carried on the Presidential [illegible]. They have the governor of the State, and they hope to buy up enough members of the Legislature to carry through all their purely financial schemes. Next year they believe they will be able to secure the Legislature so as to break down the laws which now keep the police out of their hands, and this being done New York City will be wholly at the mercy of Tammany. Law will be administered by perjurers, property will be guarded by thieves, and life will be protected by assassins. These may be extravagant expressions, in the judgment of persons who are not familiar with this city, but they are not a whit too strong to depict the probable future of New York. We have now judges on the bench whom no man would believe under oath. We had, under the rule of Fernando Wood, a police notoriously in league with the principal burglars of the city. We have a district attorney who [illegible] a case where all the evidence that was published showed a deliberate murder, accepted a plea of manslaughter, and a judge who fined the murderer six cents. We see a tremendous scheme of fraudulent voting carried on without disguise and a respected citizen stricken down in broad daylight for daring to interfere with it. We know active politicians who have done their best to murder scores of men, and we know that they are never punished unless they happen to attack a man of greater political influence than themselves. The police are the only protection remaining to the honest citizen of New York, and now the loss of the Legislature for a single year would throw the police into the hands of a [illegible] [illegible]. When that [illegible] [illegible] undone, for New York city will ever after give a 150 000 majority as easily as it now gives 50,000, and the governor being thus secured, his veto will prevent any change.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT

WASHINGTON, Saturday Dec [illegible] 1868

The reduction in the number of employes in the various Departments still continues. Over two hundred clerks were turned out of the New York Custom House before the election, and large reductions were made in various other branches of the [illegible]—especially in the Navy yards. Several hundred clerks were discharged from the [illegible] in the Department [illegible] during the summer. A considerable number [illegible] were [illegible]. At the beginning of the month [illegible] female clerks were dismissed from the Treasury in consequence of there not being work sufficient to require their services longer. [illegible] the Secretary of the Treasury has ordered the discharge of 119 clerks, inspectors and [illegible] from the New Orleans Custom House.

INTERNAL REVENUE

Commissioner Rollins' report for the fiscal year ending [illegible] 1868, now in the hands of the Public Printer, shows the total expense of assessing the revenue for the year to have been $[illegible] [illegible] and the cost of collection, exclusive of office expenses, $[illegible] 469. The total assessments were $270 089 891 and the total collections were $[illegible] 409 [illegible]. The amount paid to Revenue and Special Agents in salaries and expenses was $[illegible] [illegible] salaries of Revenue Inspectors and their expenses $[illegible].

AMERICAN SEAMEN SENT HOME

During the last fiscal year American Consuls sent home 924 of our destitute seamen, at a cost of $12 138. Of this number 136 were sent from Honolulu. In addition to this our Consuls disbursed $19 227 for the relief of destitute and discharged seamen in foreign ports.

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS

The season of public amusements is at hand, and during the past four or five weeks the theatres have been well filled most of the time. Last week Maggie Mitchell closed an engagement of twelve nights at the National Theatre to crowded houses. She is the favorite here and can draw fuller houses and for a greater number of successive nights than any other American actress. This week we have the Worrell sisters at the National in their favorite plays "Grand Duchess" and "La Belle Helene," a stock company at Walls' Opera House, Miss Clara Louise Kellogg, who made such a sensation in Europe last year, and her company of vocalists and musicians, at Metzerott Hall, and Blind Tom, the remarkable negro boy pianist, who has astonished and confounded the greatest musicians of the age by his performances in the principal cities of Europe and America, is at the Odd Fellows' Hall. When he first touched the keys of a piano, at the age of less than four years, he could play every tune he ever heard. On hearing any tune for the first time he could play it and he never forgot anything. He has heard about 5 000 tunes up to the present time and can draw on his memory for any one of them. He can play with his back towards the piano with his hands behind him, can play one tune with his right hand while he plays another tune in a different key with his left hand, and the same time sings a third tune in still another key. He can play any piece of music, no matter how difficult, by hearing it once and never forgets it, and he can listen to a speech and afterwards repeat every word, giving not only the same pauses between words, but precisely the same accents and intonation of voice. Among the airs of his own composition he plays "The Rain Storm," in which you hear the wind and rain, and the "Battle of Manassas," in which you hear the whistle of the locomotives, bringing reinforcements, the departure of the Southern troops from their homes marching to the air of "The Girl I left Behind Me," and the marching of the Union army from Washington playing "Dixie," with drums beating. But no description can convey a correct idea of the performances of this wonderful creature—he must be heard to be appreciated.

THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

The special commissioners appointed by the President to examine the Union Pacific Railroad have made their report. In the main it is favorable to the company, though the commissioners estimate that to make the road, so far as built, equal to a fully completed first class road, will require an additional expenditure of a little over six millions four hundred thousand dollars.

PERSONAL—MISCELLANEOUS

The Rev Joseph Smith, member of Congress elect from Oregon, arrived here a few days ago, and is stopping now, I believe, at the Ebbitt House. Senator Williams arrived here from Oregon yesterday evening. Mr Mallory is expected from the North to day. A great many Senators and Representatives arrived on the trains last night and this morning and there will be a large attendance in both Houses at the opening of the session next Monday. The first snow of the season fell in Washington last night. K

Colored Suffrage in Pennsylvania

Colored Suffrage is no novelty in Pennsylvania. For a century and a half freedom was the only condition of the ballot in that State. The history of the matter is thus succinctly stated in the Philadelphia Press:

In 1682 William Penn promulgated "The Frame of Government of Pennsylvania, under authority of the charter granted him by King Charles II. In this document the right of suffrage is given without restriction, to the freemen of said province."

In 1701 Penn granted what is known as the "Charter of Privileges." By this instrument the right of suffrage was broadly given to "the freemen of each respective county."

The first constitution of Pennsylvania was adopted in 1776. The convention that framed this instrument was presided over by Benjamin Franklin. It gave the right of suffrage to "every freeman of the full age of 21 years." The men of the Revolution while asserting their own rights and liberties against proscription were careful to stand fast by the cardinal idea of the political equality of all men.

In 1790 a new constitution was framed; Thomas Mifflin presided over the convention that made it. This instrument gave the right to vote to "every freeman over the age of 21 years."

In 1838 the constitution was revised. John Sergeant presided over the convention. The basis of suffrage was changed, so as to include only "every white freeman of the age of 21 years."

For one hundred and fifty six years black men, if black they were, voted in Pennsylvania on precisely the same conditions as white men. None of the evils now predicted of black suffrage were experienced. Neither the mental nor social equality of the two races was thereby established. Amalgamation either through matrimony or without was not encouraged. Not a black man was made Governor or Legislator. Social order was not subverted. The Government was not made by white men for white men, but by all men for the benefit of all.

WHO WILL HAVE INFLUENCE WITH GENERAL GRANT.—There is a great deal of speculation on this subject just now. Some people think that Mr E B Washburne will control him; some say that he is in frequent and confidential correspondence with Mr A T Stewart, the dry goods man; some say that General Rawlins is all powerful with him, and others that General Badeau wields a wonderful influence.

We have been frequently asked what we think about the matter, and to save the trouble of further inquiry we may as well state our views.

On one occasion when General Grant was riding with a friend in Leesburg, he quietly remarked, "I shall run my own machine."

Now we rather think General Grant will hold the reins himself the next four years. He has been elected President and he will be President.

It is true that he has said that he should only carry out the will of the people, as declared by the laws of Congress, but then he will carry it out. We shall have an Administration. He will do his duty, and men under him will have to do their duty.

Therefore we conclude that the most influential man with the Administration for the next four years will be Ulysses S Grant. [illegible]

The federal offices of this State need revising and refurnishing with incumbents. We have good men enough to fill them, men who will prove honest and competent and inspire confidence in the public mind in the [illegible] administration, but there are symptoms that the least worthy may [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the year 1868 from the [illegible] of the federal officeholders as a class. So the general expression throughout the State is for a new deal all around.—Salem Letter to Sacramento Union.

No man in England thinks of blacking his own boots, and an English [illegible] to Mr Lincoln: "Whose boots do you black, Mr Lincoln?" quickly asked.

CHARITY.—A large class of people professing to be [illegible] on many occasions forget that to be charitable [illegible] [illegible] being is the least virtue a person can possess [illegible] always by giving money to the poor or assisting [illegible] that a person [illegible] only show their charity [illegible] money. For instance [illegible] a person who wishes to purchase a common [illegible] [illegible] any other article in the Clothing [illegible] [illegible] a charitable act toward that [illegible] recommend them to go to Kohn & Fishel [illegible] certain that at that House they can purchase [illegible] west rates and receive good goods, and where [illegible] be satisfied?

ANNUAL GRAND OPENING

SANTA CLAUS'

BUDGET!

McCORMICK'S

BOOK STORE!

WHERE MY

HEAD-QUARTERS!

HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED

For the past Seven Years,

AND WHERE

I WILL HOLD MY ANNUAL CARNIVAL

DURING THE COMING FESTIVAL

THAT ALL MAY OBSERVE

The Christmas and New Year's

HOLIDAYS!

I herewith issue my Annual

PROCLAMATION!!!

Dear Parents and Children—once more I appear

And wish you good Christmas and Happy New Year!

I've brought you glad tidings—I've opened once more

My Budget of Wonders—at McCormick's Book Store

I've spread out my treasures so give me a call

And view the [illegible] GIFTS I've procured for you all

My Presents this year were conveyed to the town,

By Marcus's new clipper the swift Sallie Brown

The stock's most complete. The assortment comprises

Curiosities rare of all shapes and all sizes

I've Dollies that talk. I've babies that dance

(Some very handsome I purchased in France)

I've Fish that can swim. I've Roosters who strive

To crow so like nature you'll think they're alive

I've Guns and I've [illegible]—I've neat Savings Banks,

And Soldiers that walk very neat when in ranks

I've Puzzles and [illegible] That Christmas to keep

I've Candles and Rectors and Brackets—a heap

I've beautiful Baskets [illegible] gift for Ma)

And handsome Cigar Stands—just suited for Pa

While there's nothing so welcome to uncle or aunt

As a beautiful [illegible] of President Grant

I've Work Boxes—as [illegible] as ever were made—

With ladies utensils all [illegible] arrayed

I've [illegible] I've Vases of Flowers

And Musical Boxes that play at all hours,

I've Furniture Villages [illegible] and Blocks

That gay little joker, called Jack in-the-Box!

I've Tables, and Dressers, for China or delf,

I've nice Solitaire that you play by yourself!

I've new Magic Lanterns—a beautiful sight

To make all good children [illegible] at night.

For girls at school I've [illegible]

And for family fun I've the new [illegible]

I've Games that instruct, and [illegible]

For Gifts to good people I [illegible]

In fine I've got all that each heart could [illegible]

To name them all [illegible] your patience I'd tire,

But call on me early or call on me late,

I'll visit your houses all over the State—

In Washington's clime—up in young Idaho—

I'm sure to find children wherever I go

I've travelled for years—you all must remember

I'll be Sixty more at the end of December

My hair is all white and my body doth tend

To the latest [illegible]—the new Grecian bend!

On Christmas-Eve night as in bed you all sleep

With pack on my back down each chimney I'll creep

I'll lay out my Presents but oh! 'twill be shocking,

If I find a hole in any one's stocking

So for HOLIDAY GOODS—for Dolls sweet as honey

Go to McCORMICK'S—you'll save half your money

Nice Pictures or Gifts—any kind you require

You'll find at the FRANKLIN (the number enquire)

On FRONT STREET Near Alder—105.

In fact you can't miss it—and when you arrive,

Don't ask goods at cost for you'll find if you try

That goods sold at cost always cost very high

But to purchase at all this maxim I'd give

Live well yourself and thus let others live

Given at my Palace in Wonderland this 7th day of the Twelfth month, being the second year of the reign of the third George, in the land of Webfoot

Manufactory Established in June, 1851

STEAM POWER, NOS 325 AND 327 FRONT ST

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise which commands here and in the markets of the State for a relatively higher price excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned and placed on their guard against this practice

T[illegible] Boots. — A female writer [illegible] [illegible] hands [illegible] pantaloons [illegible] fashion [illegible] specimens.

[illegible] present [illegible] depe[illegible] [illegible] style of [illegible] that it can make [illegible] fashion what length of [illegible] make [illegible] appear [illegible] human frame, would almost [illegible] as to stop the circulation.

The present style of pantaloons is neither comfortable, comely nor economical. The swell that adopts it can neither stoop nor sit down without danger of an exposure of his person by ruptures caused by tension.

When we see these fashionables of the male persuasion in the street, we are reminded of the exhortation of the raw-boned, ill-formed preacher when illustrating the wonders of creation. Raising his long skinny arms high above his head, he exclaimed, "God made this frame!" A voice in the congregation replies, "The tools must have been mighty dull."

Here comes a six foot gallant with a number ten boot and a figure like a pair of tongs. There is not enough of his legs to make a shadow, and he walks as if each boot was a double base viol. By his side perhaps is another devotee of the same style, half his length, whose make-up reminds one of a plum pudding perched on the handle of a pair of pinchers. There they go, the extremes of folly and the essence of ludicrousness. Nothing a woman ever wore will compare in folly with tight breeches on a bandy-legged human biped."

SIZE NOTHING. — A talented young African, of the boot-black persuasion, while dancing like St Vitus over a customer's boots the other day, observed a brother poring wisely over a newspaper, whereupon he addressed him thus:

"Julius, what the debel you lookin' at dat paper fur? You can't read."

"Go way, fellah," replied the other indignantly. "Guess I can read, I se big 'nuff fur dat."

"Big nuff," retorted the other, scornfully. "Dat ain't nuffin. A cow's big 'nuff to cotch a mice, but she can't do it."

A young lady Good Templar, the other evening, explained her position on the cider question in conversation with a young gentleman of the same order. "Ah," said she, "I got out of it nicely when he asked me if I drunk cider. You see, since father brought that barrel from Mr. H—— that you liked so well, I have always used a straw, for I knew our officers would not ask me anything about sucking."

Blair is said to have disappeared in the Western wilderness—the execrated scapegoat, bearing all the sins of the Democracy. At least, that is the theory of the matter.

CHANGE OF NAME!

MERCADO & CO., SUCCESSORS TO Mercado & Seully, have been obliged for their own protection and the safety of the public to change the name of their celebrated Bitters to

MERCADO'S
Native California Wine
BITTERS

We subjoin the following affidavit: [illegible] [illegible] pending between Mercado & Seully, plaintiffs, and [illegible] defendant.

P. Samsevain, being duly sworn, says: That the article known as [illegible] California Wine Bitters was [illegible] by Mercado & Seully [illegible] March, 1864, [illegible] [illegible] Mercado & Seully is the Sole Proprietors of the [illegible] California Wine Bitters.

Notwithstanding the above affidavit, the said P. Samsevain is putting up a compound under the name of Samsevain's California Wine Bitters, [illegible] the same as our celebrated Bitters, which we have been manufacturing and selling in enormous quantities since 1864, and [illegible] our genuine Wine Bitters. BE NOT DECEIVED. Send for [illegible]

MERCADO'S
NATIVE CALIFORNIA WINE BITTERS,

PROSPECTUS
OF THE
Weekly Oregonian.
FOR 1869.

Nineteenth Volume!

Only $3.00 a Year.

By common consent, the OREGONIAN ranks first among the papers published in the Northwest. It is the oldest paper in the State, and its circulation and influence are greater than that of any other two papers combined. As a journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence, and in giving in each issue a larger amount and greater variety of reading matter it has no competitor. It is thoroughly identified with this city and State and neighboring Territories, where the number of its readers and its influence are constantly increasing.

An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles, it at the same time pays special attention not only to MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST, but to everything of moment to the great

Agricultural, Manufacturing,
AND MINING INTERESTS,

And to the development of the resources and settlement of the Northwest.

Its columns contain a carefully prepared digest of

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS
OF
Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana.

TELEGRAMS FROM THE EAST AND EUROPE

are published as full as in the California journals, and put before our readers from ONE TO THREE DAYS BEFORE ANY OTHER PAPER IN THE STATE.

Among its corps of writers are regular correspondents at New York and Washington City, men who, having lived in this State, are able to write on Eastern affairs, both politically and commercially from an Oregon standpoint.

Its Literary and General Selections are from the best sources.

EXTENDED AND RELIABLE

Commercial Reports

are furnished every week, giving the Financial, Dry Goods, Hardware, and General Market Reports of Portland, and the latest reports by Telegraph of the San Francisco and New York markets. These reports are acknowledged to be the most accurate published in the State.

In every department it will be, as it has been, the foremost in the State in the field of journalism. Being firmly established, it will go forward with confidence, making new plans for improvement and usefulness, and hopes to gain increased circulation and support.

TERMS:

One Year	$3 00.
Six Months	2 00.
Three Months	1 00.

The WEEKLY OREGONIAN has been a favorite paper for mailing to friends in the East. It will be mailed from the office at subscription rates.

Subscribers will find on each paper, with their names, the date on which their subscriptions expire, as entered on our books. In renewing, the name of subscriber and post office should be distinctly written.

All papers are discontinued at the end of the time for which they have been paid, the date of which is always printed with the name each week.

☞ REMIT BY MAIL AT OUR RISK, in presence of Postmaster, or pay to the nearest authorized agent.

We ask our friends to aid us in extending the circulation of the OREGONIAN in every direction.

HIRAM SMITH'S
Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

IT CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATION, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c. As has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in this city, [illegible] and vicinity to which the following persons will bear witness:

F. E. MOORE,	NATHANIEL [illegible],
A. J. WALLACE,	G. R. WARD,
Mrs. MONTGOMERY,	JOHN M. HOLLOWAY,
W. D. PORTER,	ROB'T RAMSEY,

And others equally [illegible].

Persons afflicted with the distressing scourge of diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.

Prepared by SMITH & ROACH,

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES.
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a [illegible] from the effects of secret indulgences, as it is absorbed into the system. Look at their [illegible] ted and disfigured faces and their broken [illegible] tions, disqualifying them for the [illegible] or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid [illegible] sands suffer until death closes the scene. [illegible] guardians, friends, attend to those who are [illegible] any of these horrible life-destroying [illegible] they are cared for and cured before it be [illegible] them, immediately to Doctor Gibbon, who [illegible] made private diseases his especial study for years, [illegible] [illegible] certain to cure the most inveterate cases [illegible] cury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are [illegible] welfare of their friends, to be careful of the [illegible] tended doctors who infest all cities, [illegible] In curing all diseases in a few days, [illegible] public by using the names of eminent [illegible] Europe and other places. Be therefore [illegible] strict inquiry, or you may fall into the [illegible] charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of [illegible] solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, [illegible] by the youth of both sexes to an almost [illegible] producing, with unerring certainty, the [illegible] of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by [illegible] tical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark [illegible] the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, the rustling of leaves and rattling of [illegible] about the loins, weakness of the limbs, [illegible] blunted intellect, loss of confidence, [illegible] proaching strangers, a dislike to form new [illegible] a disposition to shun society, loss of [illegible] flushes, pimples and various eruptions about [illegible] furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, [illegible] sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. [illegible] not obtained, should apply immediately [illegible] or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new [illegible] entific mode of treating this disease, which [illegible] effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give [illegible] Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove [illegible] rily to him that he was cured of this [illegible] by [illegible] of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are under any of these fearful maladies, should not [illegible] sacred responsibility resting upon them [illegible] obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give [illegible] patient a written instrument, binding [illegible] radical and permanent cure, or make no [illegible]

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED [illegible] by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating [illegible] toms, length of time the disease has cont[illegible] medicines promptly forwarded, free from [illegible] curiosity, to any part of the country, with full [illegible] directions for use, for Ten Dollars, [illegible] ter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and [illegible] who with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the [illegible] Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names [illegible] found in the daily and weekly newspapers of [illegible] cisco and other places, are tradesmen, and [illegible] lazy to work at their trades. Some are [illegible] bakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence [illegible] etc. Look over the San Francisco Direct[illegible] will not find their Medical Institutes in it, [illegible] find their former occupations in it. Look at the [illegible] tory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid [illegible] tion is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, [illegible] may save you many regrets; for, as advertising [illegible] cians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, [illegible] safety in trusting any of them until you know who [illegible] what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive [illegible] exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended [illegible] letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who [illegible] call at his office of his ability to treat diseases [illegible] proposes to cure.
